

Mercer Hotel Sevilla 5*GL
An almost private palace

In the heart of the Arenal district

Opened in 2016, Mercer Sevilla is probably the most exclusive luxury hotel in the Andalusian capital. Set in the historic center of the city next to Plaza Nueva and La Maestranza, our 5-star boutique hotel occupies the Casa Palacio Castelar, a bourgeois palace dating from 1880 which has preserved its original structure around a typical Andalusian patio, among other original elements.

The architectural renovation of the manor house was commissioned to the prestigious sevillian Architects Cruz y Ortiz. And the Mercer interior design team conceived all the hotel details with an exquisite,

María Luisa Restaurant

Unique style and respect for national products

María Luisa -whose name refers to the largest park in Seville, donated to the city in 1893 by Infanta María Luisa de Borbón, Duchess of Montpensier- is conceived as if it were a small box of chocolates: a space with capacity for 18 guests with an intimate and discreet atmosphere.

Each morning, the exquisite Mercer breakfast is served by María Luisa Restaurant, for starting the day in the most delicious way.

Meetings and Events, Celebrations in Style

Celebrate your special occasions in our historic palace, an exclusive setting for your small meetings and events. All this, combined with our gastronomic offer as coffee breaks, cocktail menus, lunches and dinners, as well as the personalized attention of our professional team.
